

Other Times & Other Worlds: 8 Novel Boxed Set

Four classic authors pair their work with four indie tales. Perfect for readers 10 and up. The Friendship Stones by Alan Black: LillieBeth Hazkit is thrust into an adult world of evil and of evil men, she has to grow up much too fast, learning of love, of tribulation and of facing her demons with fire, fury, anger, and blossoming maturity. Growing up in the Ozarks in 1920. She feels compelled to obey the command to love our neighbors, a scripture she learned at her little country church and school house. It comes as an immense shock when she learns the friendless, crazy old man down the road does not want to be her friend and it becomes her mission to convince him that she loves him. The Adventures of Tom Sawyer by Mark Twain: An 1876 novel about a young boy growing up along the Mississippi River. The story is set in the fictional town of St. Petersburg, inspired by Hannibal, Missouri where Twain lived. Michael Belmont and the Tomb of Anubis by Ethan Erway: Michael Belmont has always dreamed of leading a more adventurous life, but when it actually happens, he ends up getting more than he ever bargained for. Michael is sent to stay with his best friend Liam in Scotland while their parents conduct research at an ancient Egyptian necropolis. All is well until the boys get news that their parents have disappeared. Now Michael, his sister Abby, and Liam suddenly find themselves in a race to obtain an ancient magical artifact that could be the only key to rescuing their parents, before its too late. Treasure Island by Robert Louis Stephenson: An adventure novel of buccaneers and buried gold. Traditionally considered a coming-of-age story, Treasure Island is a tale noted for its atmosphere, characters and action, and also as a wry commentary on the ambiguity of morality, treasure maps marked with an X, schooners, the Black Spot, tropical islands, and one-legged seamen bearing parrots on their shoulders. The Minstrels Tale by Anna Questerly: Fourteenth Century, France where Amos Questerly, a wandering minstrel takes on a mysterious young apprentice. But his new protege, Richard, carries a deadly secret. A secret someone is willing to kill for. To reach safety they must earn their way to England by telling exciting stories of magical swords, princesses, and dragons, while danger follows on their heels. By the time Amos learns Richards secret, its clear even England may not be safe. The two, trapped in an adventure as thrilling as any of the minstrels tales, must follow a perilous path that leads straight to the royal palace. Gullivers Travels by Jonathan Swift: Travels into Several Remote Nations of the World. In Four Parts. By Lemuel Gulliver, First a Surgeon, and then a Captain of Several Ships, better known simply as Gullivers Travels that is a satire on human nature and a parody. The Disillusionment of Anahera Daniels by J.D.Scott: Nothing of significance ever happened on Pleasant Avenue in the sleepy town of Prescott, Arizona. That is, nothing youve ever heard about On Anahera Daniels 18th birthday, she wakes from a disturbing nightmare, only to walk into another. After overhearing life-shattering news that her parents arent who she thought they were, she questions her place among family, friends, and in the heart of Nathan, her high school crush. Anas life splinters into two realities when strange dreams develop into a newfound ability to Travel between Earth and the world of Posternis. Armed with only her sarcastic wit and a pocketknife, Ana must decipher where her loyalties lie and choose between two worlds and two loves before the deadly side effects of Traveling end her life altogether. Alice in Wonderland by Lewis Carroll: a novel of a girl named Alice falling through a rabbit hole into a fantasy world populated by peculiar, anthropomorphic creatures.
