

MARY ELLEN 1

Into the turbulence and chaos of the penal settlement at Brisbane Town comes a young Irish peasant girl who has been forced into servitude and finds herself the victim of both a cruel land and a savage mistress. Mary Ellen Flanaghans life of unremitting misery is lightened by her unusual friendship with a local Turrbal woman and an English aristocrat. The three women forge an unbreakable bond which binds them through many tragedies, joys and adventures amidst the compelling unfolding history of a new town in a strange, upside down land. Together they laugh and cry and as their lives become inextricably entwined, they share the joys and blessings of marriage and children as well as the devastating pain of loss. Together they do their utmost to live their lives amidst dust, dirt, heat and battle the dangers of convicts, the military and socially entrenched attitudes which threaten to pull them apart. Their strength and courage is forged through adversity as well as the memorable characters who become part of their lives. You will be enchanted by these women, laugh with them, delight in their every victory and feel their sorrow when life strikes them seemingly mortal blows. Their stories are absorbing, compelling and unforgettable.
