

The Transformation of Francine

When most fifty-year-old women are settled in their lives, Francine's life is falling apart. A chain of events, beginning with a minor car accident, shakes Francine's foundation, causing her to reevaluate her career and her relationship with the people closest to her: her husband, her daughter, her best friend, and a former lover. The Transformation of Francine recounts the pivotal year in the life of Francine Blythe as she copes with betrayal and loss, rekindles her passion for life, and opens herself up to love again.
