

Tackling the Truth

Agatha Award Nominated Author! When Jeff learns that they're moving just before his senior year of high school is about to begin, he's crushed about losing his place on the football team. That's the least of his problems, though, when he and his mother and little sister move in with his grandfather, a man who is hiding his own secrets. Jeff doesn't realize it, but the truth about his long lost father is about to resurface as well, and Jeff is determined to learn the truth, no matter what the cost.
