

My Mothers Keeper

This is the story of Asha a beautiful young girl who grows up surrounded by luxury in a palace in India and believes her mother is dead. But it is a lie perpetrated by her grandparents, who have kept her away from their wayward daughter Sona, who left husband, home, daughter and the wealth of her grandparents to make a career in films. Asha is unleashed into her mothers stormy life on the death of her grandparents and finds her mother living in with Mandy, a young man of dubious origin who is much younger than Sona. Asha longs for her father Parijat, who lives in America and is estranged from her mother but not divorced. Asha tries to oust Mandy from her mothers life but is drawn to him like a moth to a flame. The consequences are disastrous. Sona is seen through the eyes of two people who play a pivotal part in her life: Asha and Mandy
