

Single book, companion to the Trail series. A Range War greets Theresa ten years after the Civil War when she returns to Montana. She, a rancher-princess, teams up with the Shepherd Amos Cyril, who holds the key to preventing the range war. He is both a shepherd and a pastor, doing all in his power to prevent the ranchers from going to war against the farmers and shepherds. The key to it all is in the old diary that people are willing to commit murder to destroy. Somehow, God will provide the answer.
